

UNIVERSITY HILLS COMMUNITY CENTER RULES AND RESERVATION PROCEDURES

As California reemerges from pandemic closures, ICHA is pleased to announce the reopening of recreational amenities reservations. Please review the following rules and procedures, as they include changes to accommodate COVID-19 safety protocols. The Application and Facility Use Waiver attached to this document is required for all paid reservations for the Community Center. For more details, see How to Make a Reservation below.

Reservation Policy Overview

Please understand that these rules and reservations procedures are subject to change at any time contingent on health department requirements:

- There is one reservation for the Community Room allowed per day.
- The Community Center is a paid facility. There is a use fee (based on which room is used), a $250 refundable deposit and a cleaning fee that is required following all events in order to comply with COVID-19 safety protocols (see fee card below).
- Reservation holders are responsible for taking precautions to protect themselves and their guests from exposure to COVID-19 and will be required to sign a waiver when making a reservation (scroll down for waiver attached to this document).
